Mei Ling joined Intertrust Hong Kong in 1995 and was appointed as Director of Taxation and China Services in 2004. She is the Head of Taxation Division.

Mei Ling has specialized in Hong Kong taxation matters since 1987. Her experience includes providing Hong Kong tax compliance services and also advisory services for a wide range of clients dealing with personal and corporate affairs in both Hong Kong and China. In addition, Mei Ling also has over ten years experience in assisting clients in handling the tax investigation by the Hong Kong tax authority. Along with her team, she also provides tax due diligence and transfer pricing services.

For the past ten years, Mei Ling has focused her interests on China taxation matters and has extensively advised multinational corporations on taxation and regulatory issues in China. Mei Ling also provides a comprehensive range of inbound tax and business advisory services to foreign companies investing in both Hong Kong and China.

Mei Ling has contributed to a number of publications inclusive of CCH's International Tax Planning Manuals for corporations, expatriates, migrants and Offshore Financial Centres.
