

Intertrust N.V. included in AMX[®] Index

Intertrust N.V. (“Intertrust” or “Company”) [ticker symbol INTER] a leading global provider of high-value trust and corporate services announces its inclusion in the AMX[®] index, the most widely used midcap indicator of the Dutch stock exchange.

Amsterdam – 09 March 2016 – Intertrust NV will be included in the AMX[®] index, effective 18 March 2016 after close of trading. The AMX[®] is a free-float market capitalisation-weighted index which reflects the performance of the second largest and most traded 25 stocks on Euronext Amsterdam. The index serves as an underlying basket of shares for structured products, funds, exchanged-traded funds and futures. The AMX[®] is part of the AEX[®] family of indices.

David de Buck, CEO of Intertrust, said: “We are very pleased to enter the AEX family of indices so quickly after our IPO. Our inclusion in the AMX marks a milestone in our development as a listed company, increasing the visibility of our securities in general and allowing index-investors to invest in Intertrust shares.”

Intertrust listed on Euronext Amsterdam on 15 October 2015 following a successful IPO.
